FROM THE RABBI

GRATEFUL FOR MY COMMUNITY

As I sit down to write, it is but a few weeks since my father's passing. Needless to say, the range of emotions has been incredible, but my family and I continue to deal with day-to-day business. Much of the strength that has allowed us to do this has come from the support of our Jewish community.

For twenty-four years I have known that Congregation Etz Chayim, and by extension the entire Toledo Jewish community, is a family. Every individual is concerned with the wellbeing of all others. Never has that been more obvious to me than right now. From phone calls to cards, visits to bring food, and an overarching attitude of support and love, I promise that we all know that we are never alone. I greatly appreciate everything that has been done for us, and I love you all.

I do have one request. For many years I have been in charge of recruiting for minyan. It has been a privilege and an honor to make every effort I could so that others could say Kaddish. I now ask for myself. From now until Passover, I am beseeching all of you to help me during my time of need.

May the spirit of togetherness that pervades our community bring us strength and success in this effort.

Rabbi Evan B. Rubin

FROM THE PRESIDENT

The Long-Range Planning Committee of our Board of Trustees has been actively involved in considering the future of Congregation Etz Chayim. In the State of the Synagogue Report I presented last Yom Kippur I mentioned that many difficult decisions would need to be made during this past year. Those decisions primarily affected personnel expenses. This year's upcoming Yom Kippur State of the Synagogue report will continue in that vein, but even more so. In this coming report, I intend to be as transparent as possible regarding facts about our membership demographics, our state of finances, and participation in leadership, services and programming.

Our Long-Range Committee believes that this state of transition will be best met in the following way:

- ▶ Presentation of relevant facts to the membership on Yom Kippur.
- ▶ Congregational meetings in which facts can be reviewed, questions can be answered, and ideas of how to move forward can be presented by the committee as well as the membership. We do have some ideas that have been developed by members of the committee, but believe that fresh ideas from members are equally important.

For your convenience, the choice of dates of the congregational meetings are Thursday, October 11, 2018 at 7:00 p.m. or Wednesday, October 17, 2018 at 1:30 p.m.

The Etz Chayim Board of Trustees is facing serious decisions. This is your opportunity to have your voice heard and your questions answered and to help us regarding our future. Decisions made by the Board will affect the entire congregation.

Please call the office to let us know of your plans for attendance.

Bob Berkowitz

BAT MITZVAH - SAMANTHA STEIN

Samantha Stein, born in February 2004, will celebrate her Bat Mitzvah on Sunday, August 5, 2018 at Congregation Etz Chayim. She is the oldest daughter of Sandy and Johnathan Stein, sister to Nicole and granddaughter of Edythe Jaffee. She will be a freshman at Wauseon High School, is a straight A, Honor Roll student and two-year member of the National Junior Honor Society. She is a 4-H member, has been elected Treasurer three times with the campaign slogan, "Vote for me, I'm good at Math!" Samantha's 4-H projects range from Cake Decorating to Gun Safety and Money Wise. Her project this year is Robotics.

Samantha is also on the Wauseon Archery Team and has just joined the High School Marching Band, playing clarinet.

Samantha raised and keeps Rhode Island Red Chickens - six layers and Rufus the Rooster. She has three outdoor cats - Big Boy, Princess and Bootsie - and is eager to get a Husky puppy this summer.

When not busy with other activities, Samantha enjoys climbing (anything, especially trees), listening to music, gaming, and exploring nature, and is a reading maniac. Her (so far) unbroken 4-year school record for "Most Books Read" won her a 32" TV. She hopes to go to college and become a mechanical engineer.

Samantha's talk at her Bat Mitzvah will be "Gossip and Loshon Hara."

Samantha is looking forward to sharing this very special day with all of her family and friends.

We wish Samantha the very best as she ascends "MaChayil El Chayil" - from strength to strength. May she always be a blessing to her family and the people of Israel.

SUMMER PROGRAMS CONTINUE AT ETZ CHAYIM

A program highlight last months was the Sandpiper cruise. Our group packed our lunches and enjoyed the two-hour cruise on the Maumee. The weather was perfect, all the people on the cruise were friendly. Many thanks to Marcia and Harvey for driving people down to the boat. We all had a great time!

The summer months may be coming to an end, but our Etz Chayim programs continue. Come be a part of the fun and learning.

1. Monday, August 6 at 7:00 p.m. - Poker/Mahj at the Shul - We are meeting on Monday evening during the summer. Everyone is invited to play and join in the fun.
2. Sunday, August 12 at 4:00 p.m. - Etz Chayim Family Picnic - Everyone is invited to a musical jazz presentation by "Minor Frett Jazz" with a delicious dinner following. See information on the cover of this bulletin for exact details and prices.
3. Saturday, August 18 following services - August Birthday & Anniversary Shabbat Kiddush Lunch - Help us celebrate with our members who are celebrating birthdays and anniversaries in August.
4. Tuesday, August 21 at 1:00 p.m. - Introduction to "Knitzvah Project" with Gail Cooper, Baskets of Care.
5. SAVE THE DATE: Sunday, September 16 at 2:00 p.m. - Art Museum Tour with Andrea Delman.

"KNITZVAH" PROJECT ETZ CHAYIM

It is with great pride and excitement to introduce our "Knitzvah" project at Etz Chayim. We will meet monthly to knit and crochet for Baskets of Care, to share in conversation and to enjoy coffee/tea & sweets together.

Baskets of Care provides women and men newly diagnosed with breast cancer with Comfort Care Bags. Our volunteers will be hand-knitting or crocheting healing shawls for these care bags.

Whether you are a knitter or crocheter or would like to learn, you are welcome to join.

Baskets of Care was founded by breast cancer survivor, Gail Cooper. Gail will be coming to Etz Chayim on August 21 at 1:00 p.m. to introduce the "Knitzvah" project and answer Baskets of Care questions. After the discussion, the volunteers can decide the best day and time to meet each month. Just call the shul to register for the August meeting.

If you have any questions, email Nancy Jacobson at Jac0824@bex.net.
