FROM THE RABBI

SUCCOT AND THANKSGIVING

With the passing of Succot and the approach of Thanksgiving, I felt it important to remind myself of all the things in our lives to appreciate: both religious and secular holidays present opportunities to join with family; our synagogue continues to successfully meet daily challenges.

As we prepare to install a new Board, I want to first give sincere personal and professional thanks to the outgoing officers. You all have served with dignity and grace while navigating through a difficult time for our organization. You have been a wonderful support to me, both in moments of joy and moments of personal crisis. I value the relationships I have with all of you, and I am certain they will not end with your changing roles.

I also want to offer best wishes for a successful term to our incoming officers. Under the leadership of Steve Marcus, I have absolute confidence that the next chapter in the story of Congregation Etz Chayim will be a good one. I know that we will work together to make our synagogue the best it can be in the upcoming year.

Rabbi Evan B. Rubín

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Many thanks go out to all of you who helped with our Sukkot luncheon on Saturday, October 19. We appreciate everyone who worked to make this event a success.

Our annual Etz Chayim/B'nai Israel Rummage Sale will take place on Sunday, November 10 and Bag Day is Monday, November 11. People may drop off their rummage on Sunday, November 3 and Monday, November 4 (from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.) The set-up at Etz Chayim will take place Thursday, October 31, Tuesday, November 5, and Wednesday, November 6. Clean-up Day will be Tuesday, November 12. We continue to look for both men and women to volunteer to help with this important Sisterhood fundraiser. Please contact Marcia Grossman at (419)-536-0890 to volunteer.

The Sisterhood Donor is coming up. Watch your mail as Donor Chairwomen Sharon Ravin and Suzie Rosenberg will be sending out information soon.

Mark your calendars for Etz Chayim's Chanukah luncheon on Sunday, December 29.

The next Sisterhood Board meeting is Tuesday, December 3 at 10:15 a.m. in the Shul Library. All Sisterhood members are invited to attend.

2019 HARRY LEVINE SERVICE AWARD

Harry Levine was a man among men. His legacy? He was kind. He was thoughtful. He had a wry sense of humor. According to his daughter Barbara, he continued to beat her at gin rummy even at the end of his life. Harry was a successful business man and he and his beloved Frieda raised three daughters in whom they imbued a strong sense of Yiddishkeit that included a strong sense of community. Harry not only was generous to his community, he was generous quietly. He never sought or even liked recognition. He did what needed to be done just because it needed to be done. One of Harry's greatest legacies at Congregation Etz Chayim was his single-person minyan phone committee. Every single night, Harry called the men of the congregation, not stopping until he had the commitment he needed to insure a minyan the next day. And the next evening, he made the calls again. . . and again . . . and again. Week in, and year out, that was Harry Levine, the mensch in whose honor and memory this award was established.

This year, the Etz Chayim Awards Committee unanimously selected the following three individuals to receive this prestigious award: Naomi Baron, Bob Berkowitz, and Aileen Pargament. They all are former Morris Lubitsky Award Winners. They all have long been officers of the shul. But the reason they were selected was not because of that. It was because, like Harry Levine, day in and day out, these three people are at shul, doing what needs to be done. No horns blow, no red carpet is laid out. In fact, it is now simply assumed that these volunteers will be there. Why? Because there is work to be done and someone needs to do it. Why? Why not!

We are proud to honor Naomi Baron, Bob Berkowitz, and Aileen Pargament.

Naomi Baron is a former social worker and retired CPA/Attorney. Prior to retiring, Naomi's hobby was to earn graduate level degrees. Since retiring, her activities include bowling, playing mah jong, spending time with her husband Richard, and travelling to Indianapolis to visit daughter Rebecca, son-in-law Darshan, and infant grandson Rahm. In addition, one of her most important activities (holding Rahm being THE most important activity) is volunteering in the Etz Chayim office where she types up the monthly Hashomer, helps to fold and prepare it for mailing, and lends a hand with just about any other office task that needs to be done.

Naomi and Richard have been members of Congregation Etz Chayim since moving to Toledo in 1985. The synagogue became a very important part of their lives from the beginning. Naomi volunteered in the office in the early nineties, became First Vice-President for Finance in 1995 and was elected the first female President of the synagogue in 1997. She has repeated her role as Finance Vice-President a couple of times since then and is a former recipient of both the Morris Lubitsky Memorial Award and the Harry Levine Service Award. Naomi was also active in the Toledo Jewish Cemetery Association as an Etz Chayim representative and took a significant role protecting the synagogue's interests during the transition of the cemetery and the Etz Chayim Perpetual Care Fund to the Toledo Jewish Community Foundation.

Naomi is grateful for the loving support she receives from Richard in every endeavor. She is also grateful to Elsa Leveton and Sandy Marcus for their dedication to Etz Chayim, and to the Harry Levine Service Award Committee for believing that her work lives up to the legacy of Harry Levine.

She strongly encourages every member of the Etz Chayim community to become involved in volunteer opportunities at the synagogue so that they, too, may discover that Etz Chayim is more than a synagogue, it is a family!

Bob Berkowitz was born and raised in Toledo, where family was a central part of his life. He attended the University of Toledo, where he received his bachelor, master's and administrative degrees. He spent 18 years as an elementary teacher, 20 years as an elementary principal and four years working as an adjunct professor at Lourdes University. Bob was a member of Phi Delta Kappa, recipient of the Martha Holden Jennings Foundation Award, and was selected as the Sylvania Educator of the Year in 2003.

Bob has been actively involved in Congregation Etz Chayim, serving as the Sunday School principal for 5 years and 5 years as its President. He has previously been awarded the Morris Lubitsky Memorial Award as well as the Harry Levine Service Award. His love of Judaism can be seen through his shul participation. Almost daily he may be found volunteering in the synagogue office.

A highlight of Bob's life was working as a referee for high school and junior high football games, a job he held for 38 years, until retiring at age 70. Recently he has reconnected to a game of his past, duplicate bridge, from which he derives great pleasure.

Bob has been married to Cheryl for 44 years and they are the proud parents to Marla and Vicki (Andy) and four fabulous granddaughters, Ruthie, Yael, Izzy and Olivia. Just as when he was a child, family is a central part of his life. He enjoys spending time at the family cottage at nearby Wampler's Lake where he and his siblings enjoy each other, each other's children and each other's grandchildren.

Bob would like to thank the committee for selecting him as an awardee of the Harry Levine Service Award.

Aileen Pargament was born and raised in Baltimore, MD, where she grew up in a close-knit family and community. She attended the University of Maryland from which she earned her undergraduate degree, as well as her MSW. It was also at college that she met Ken, her husband of 45 years.

In 1979, Aileen and Kenny moved to the Midwest where Ken joined the faculty at BGSU and Aileen worked for the Wood County Mental Health Clinic as a clinical social worker. When they moved from BG to Sylvania, they chose to join Congregation Etz Chayim, drawn by the warmth of the people and the feeling of being welcomed into a family. They have always felt that Etz Chayim was their second family and have wanted to help the synagogue flourish. Aileen has played a leadership role in the synagogue, holding the offices of Vice-President of Finance and of Personnel, as well as President, and was a recipient of the Morris Lubitsky Memorial Award.

In 1983 Aileen started her private practice in Toledo, seeing individuals, couples, and families. She retired in July, 2017.

Aileen and Ken have two grown sons, Jonathan (Laura), and Ben (Amanda). Of course, their pride and joy are their grandchildren, Emmy and Oliver.

Since retiring, Aileen and Ken have traveled widely. They most recently returned from a trip to Africa, and have traveled extensively in this country as well as internationally. They enjoy learning about other cultures and experiencing the sights, sounds, and rhythms of other places. When Aileen is not volunteering at Etz Chayim, Red Cross or Hospice of Northwest Ohio, she enjoys spending time with friends and family, baking and cooking, reading, taking walks, playing mahjong, and especially needlepoint.

Aileen is very grateful for the opportunity to be part of the Etz Chayim family. She especially appreciates the honor of receiving the Harry Levine Service Award. She feels so blessed to have such a rewarding life, especially her wonderful family, friends, and synagogue.

NOVEMBER PROGRAMS PLANNED

What's the Best Way to Stay Warm in the Colder Weather?

I hope everyone enjoyed the holidays with family and friends. We continue our busy times at Etz Chayim with religious and social programs.

We are excited for our very special evening celebrating Etz Chayim's 45th Anniversary on Saturday, December 7. Look for your invitation in the mail and come join the fun. It will be an evening of fabulous music offered by the Klezmer Fusion Band, delicious food and sharing wonderful memories.

I am delighted with the response from people interested in Chavurah groups. A questionnaire will be sent out to those people regarding your interests. If there is anyone else interested in the chavurah groups, please contact me.

Ken Pargament will begin our Adult Speaker's Bureau on Thursday, November 7 at 7:30 p.m.. His topic will be "Sacred Moments, What Makes Life Worth Living?" There will be time for questions and answers. A light dessert will be served.

There will be a city-wide community program at the Temple on the morning of Sunday, November 17. The speaker will be from the ADL whose topic is "Anti-Semitism: What it looks like and how to respond."

There will be twenty- eight people going to enjoy the music of Itzhak Perlman on Tuesday, November 12. It's nice offering group tickets to plays, music and sports events so we can enjoy the fun together.

1. Wednesday, November 6 at 1:00 p.m. - "Knitzvah" Project. Come knit, crochet and socialize with your friends while making shawls for "Baskets of Care."
2. Thursday, November 7 at 7:30 p.m. - Adult Speaker's Bureau Ken Pargament. Please join us for Ken's inspiring talk on "Sacred Moments, What Makes Life Worth Living?"
3. Tuesday, November 12 at 8:00 p.m. - Itzhak Perlman concert at the Valentine Theatre.
4. Saturday, November 16, After Services - Join us for the November Birthday/Anniversary and Installation of Officers & Award Kiddush Luncheon. There is no charge for this lunch, but reservations must be made by Thursday, November 7.
5. Sunday, November 24 at 2:00 p.m. - We will have another wonderful Toledo Museum of Art Tour led by museum docent Andrea Delman. The cost is $8.00 per person. Please call the synagogue office by November 21 to register.

SAVE THE DATE:

Don't forget the Etz Chayim 45th Anniversary Celebration on Saturday, December 7, 2019. There will be a special celebratory dinner and entertainment by the Klezmer Fusion Band.

Many thanks to our past board officers & volunteers and mazel tov to our new officers.

*Warm regards,
Nancy Jacobson, Program Director*

Candle Lighting Blessing

Boruch atta A-do-noy elohainu melech ho'olam asher kidshano b'mitzvosov, v'tzivonu l'hadlik nair shel:

On Shabbos conclude: Shabbos.

On Festivals conclude: Yom Tov.

On Festivals occurring Friday conclude:
Shabbos ve'yom tov.

Blessed art Thou, O Lord, our G-d, King of the universe, who hast sanctified us by Thy commandments and instructed us to kindle the Sabbath (and/or) Festival Lights.
