FROM THE PRESIDENT

First, I wish to thank Jason Mark and Joseph Gold for their wonderful leadership while conducting the services during the High Holidays. With the further assistance of Charles Wittenberg, David Black, and Elsa Leveton, everyone who attended felt safe and comfortable while praying in the Shul.

October brings the election of the new Board of Trustees which will take place immediately prior to the Board Meeting scheduled for October 28, 2021. This election, along with the regular Board Meeting, will continue to be held by Zoom.

I continue to urge the membership to note the programming activities listed in the Hashomer each month. Please take advantage of the opportunities to get together with your fellow Shul members.

I want to welcome Jason Mark as our synagogue's rabbinic intern. Jason will be in attendance at Etz Chayim every three weeks or so for about four days at a time. His internship runs from this October through May 2022. In light of Jason's assistance in his new role, information will be forthcoming soon relating to Shabbat services and other religious activities for the upcoming year.

Everyone please stay safe and take care.

*Steve Marcus
President*
