FROM THE PRESIDENT

Fall is approaching and we are getting ready for the High Holiday season. It is a time to look forward to the upcoming year and reflect on the one just passed.

The nightmarish events of October 7th and the horrific days and months that have followed have shaken the very foundation of our existence as Jews and our place in the world. The exponential spread of antisemitism rose to the surface on social media, in the halls of Congress, on college campuses, and have spilled out into the streets.

Never in my lifetime have I ever felt so vulnerable, but at the same time never so proud to be Jewish! On so many levels I have seen this community come together, more aware and unified.

As we look forward into next year, may it be filled with good health, happiness, and freedom to live as a Jew.

Once again we are blessed to have Rabbi Jason Mark and Joseph Gold to make our High Holiday and Shabbat services fulfilling and meaningful. Looking forward to seeing you there.

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, we extend our wishes for you all to have a sweet, joyous, happy and healthy New Year!

Looking forward to seeing you all in shul.

L'Shana Tova!

Marc Jacobson
President

GIFT SHOP NEWS

Summer is ending and the High Holidays are quickly approaching. We have new apple and honey plates and new electric memorial lights to remember your loved ones. Also remember our gift shop for weddings, birthdays and all of your gift giving needs.

Call our gift shop chairman, Sandy Marcus, at (419) 473-2401, to make an appointment to visit our gift shop.

As always, free gift wrapping is available on all purchases.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

The Sisterhood Opening Program, with a dairy lunch to follow, will be held at Etz Chayim on Wednesday, September 11 from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. The program will feature our own Susan Muska who will be speaking on her recent European trip. Come hear about her trip beginning in Paris; taking a train to Amsterdam where she wandered the cobblestone streets and heard wonderful jazz; cruising down the Rhine and Danube Rivers through Holland, Germany, Austria, and Hungary. Susan will be sharing photos and stories of her unbelievable trip. Sisterhood will also be installing the 2024-2025 officers. Come celebrate with us. Everyone is welcome to attend. Reservations are required and must be made by Wednesday, September 4.

On Sunday, October 20, during the intermediate days of Sukkot, Sisterhood will be hosting a spaghetti luncheon. There will be prayers and wine in the Sukkah with lunch following. There is no charge for this delightful activity.

The next Sisterhood meeting will be Wednesday, September 4 at 10:00 a.m. at Etz Chayim.

Congregation Etz Chayim Sisterhood wishes everyone Shana Tova, a year filled with good health, happiness and peace.

SEPTEMBER PROGRAMS PLANNED

The beautiful and meaningful holidays are around the corner. Our family at Etz Chayim should be so proud of our accomplishments during the past year. Our family works together to set and accomplish goals. We are a team!!

Many thanks to the officers, board of trustees, staff and volunteers of Etz Chayim. It is all of you that keeps us together. Your dedication and love are appreciated. We are fortunate that Rabbi Mark will continue to travel miles to be with us and lead beautiful Shabbat services. Everyone enjoys coming together for Shabbat. He will be leading our Rosh Hashana & Yom Kippur services again this year.

Thank you to the families who have opened their homes so we are able to have lovely pre-Shabbat dinners together. Many thanks to all the people who work so hard to cook and prepare for these dinners and the Shabbat kiddush luncheons.

The sensational Sisterhood ladies meet monthly the first Wednesday of each month. They continue to plan fun and educational activities.

One of the highlights of the year for Etz Chayim was donating one of our Torahs to the newly organized Maui Jewish Ohana in Hawaii. See the August Hashomer or the June/July edition of the Toledo Jewish News for more information about our new connection to the Jewish community in Maui.

We are offering a variety of programs during September. We are so fortunate to have Ken Pargament leading a Sunday morning discussion on the 8th from 10:00 a.m. - 11:30 a.m. His topic will be "The Last Lecture of Rabbi Jonathan Sacks, Chief Rabbi of Great Britain."

Wednesdays with our Friends at Etz Chayim are a perfect opportunity for people to get together for a few hours at shul. The idea is to bring friends together for a few hours to enjoy a different activity each time. Our programs last month were fun, interesting, and enjoyed by the participants.

We are so fortunate to have Susan Muska sharing her amazing travelogue as part of our Wednesdays with Friends and the Sisterhood Opening Luncheon on Wednesday, September 11 at 10:00 a.m. See the Sisterhood article in this Hashomer for more details.

Join the ladies and gentlemen on Sunday, September 15 for Poker & Mahj. We play from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. at Etz Chayim. It is a great time to socialize, play, & have fun!

A fun and delicious Wednesday with Friends is planned for Wednesday, September 18 at 10:00 a.m. Carol VanZile will be sharing and baking an Apple Dumpling recipe. Everyone is invited to come and enjoy. Please register with Nancy.

Rabbi Jason Mark will be leading a pre-holiday Zoom on Monday evening, September 23 at 7:00 p.m. Please register so you are able to receive the Zoom link.

I wish you all a very happy & healthy New Year.

L'Shana Tova,

*Nancy Jacobson
Program Director*
