FROM THE PRESIDENT

As I write this message, I am looking forward to this week's Fireside Chat with Rivka Fridman and to a Shabbat weekend with Rabbi Jason Mark, including a Chinese Dinner on Friday night and Shabbat morning services. As you read this message, I hope that both events are a memory in which you were able to participate. It is true that many of our members are not able to participate in all activities, but there are many to choose from, each an opportunity to pray with, play with, or simply interact with our shul family. IF you are able, we hope you will join us.

We are pleased that some events draw members of the broader Jewish community into our synagogue. In fact, as our community dwindles in size across the board, it is lovely that all the congregations are encouraging shared learning and social activities. Please make sure that you read the Toledo Jewish News and the Friday Facts to become aware of the many opportunities in our community.

One such opportunity is Technology with Tim Hagen of the Federation. Many of us struggle with tech problems regularly. In addition to the programs sponsored by the Federation, Tim is available to come to your home for a one-on-one if you are in need.

Our Future Committee continues to explore options. None have yet been eliminated by us. Currently, we are working with the Federation in the exploration of the Five Lakes Church on McCord Road, as a possible Federation Community Center, in which Etz Chayim would carve out space to hold services, social events, and conduct the business of the synagogue. We are working with an architectural firm to analyze the space. If the board makes any recommendations about moving our congregation to another space, a Congregational Meeting will be held for approval.

There is a myriad of programs already planned for February and March, including Tu B'Shevat learning with our esteemed teacher, Aviva Panush, a Super Bowl Party at the home of Joe Wittenberg, a group outing to watch and hear the Toledo Opera's South Pacific performance, and a zoom book discussion and art tour with Naomi Baron and Andrea Delman. Thank you to the Program Committee, led by our programming director, Nancy Jacobson, for such enticing variety!

Finally, I am happy to tell you that we have received a grant from the Federation to help with the cost of our security. This grant is a direct result of the LiveSecure Campaign, a campaign in which the entire community is involved. The funds are being matched and are being used to help keep our entire Jewish community safe. Simply put, when you come to shul, the salary of the person who opens the door for you is partially paid through these funds. If you have not already contributed, I hope you will consider doing so.

And best of all, our Wednesday Minyan continues to meet successfully, often exceeding ten men. Please know that if you need a minyan for a yahrtzeit, you may request it, and these dedicated minyanaires will do what they can to make it happen. They are the backbone of how Etz Chayim continues to function!

Celebrate Tu b'Shevat by planting a tree in Israel or supporting their desalination program. Stay warm, stay safe, stay well, stay active.

B'ahava,

Margie Siegel, President

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Sisterhood has planned some fun activities for the next couple of months.

The first program will be a paper flower-making class with Mary Willet. Sisterhood hosted this activity last spring and many were very happy with their projects. Mary is patient and will help you to achieve a beautiful flower project. The class will be held Wednesday, February 26 at 10:00 a.m. at Etz Chayim. The cost for this activity is $18.00. Please RSVP to Cheryl Berkowitz or Andrea Lublin if you are planning to attend the class.

The second activity will be a glass class with Ellen Rubin. We will be making a project for Passover or everyday use. The class will be held on Sunday, March 2, 11:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. These classes are always fun and Ellen's teaching skills really come out helping everyone to make an item they will be proud to use and display. The cost will be $35.00 for small pieces of glass. If you wish to do a bigger project there will be an additional fee for the extra glass.

Beginning in January of this year, Sisterhood will deliver a Birthday Challah to our in-town Etz Chayim members. In the month of your birthday a member of Sisterhood will call to set up a time to deliver your Birthday Challah to you. We want to wish everyone a Happy Birthday each month.

Purim begins at sundown on Thursday, March 13 and ends on Friday, March 14 this year. As Sisterhood began looking at this holiday we chose to continue the Shaloch Manot bags for Purim. You will receive a letter the at the beginning of February, with a list of Congregation Etz Chayim members who live locally. If you would like to donate and honor friends of yours with a Purim bag, please complete the form with your donation and mail it back to Etz Chayim by Friday, February 21. This Sisterhood program was started many years ago by Barbara Rubin z"l, as a fundraiser but also as a way to fulfill the mitzvah of giving gifts at Purim.

The next Sisterhood meeting will be Wednesday, February 5 at 10:00 a.m. at Etz Chayim.

UPCOMING FEBRUARY PROGRAMS

Tu B'Shevat this year begins at sundown on Wednesday, February 12 and ends at nightfall on Thursday, February 13. This day marks the season in which the earliest-blooming trees in the Land of Israel come out from winter sleep and begin a new "fruit bearing cycle". It is often referred to as the New Year for Trees and is often celebrated as an environmental holiday. We are so lucky to have Aviva Panush coming to us on Sunday, February 9 to discuss texts that recognize Judaism's long-standing awareness of the importance of the environment. We will then interpret the texts through creative expression.

Join us for a Super Bowl Party on Sunday, February 9 hosted by Joe Wittenberg at his home. There will be food, fun and a great time! PEOPLE MUST REGISTER BY SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 2.

Another very special activity is the Toledo Opera performance of "South Pacific" at the Valentine Theatre on Sunday, February 16 at 2:00 p.m. Our group is also invited to a "question and answer" session at 1:00 p.m. before the show. This will be a very special afternoon. Contact Nancy or Elsa for reservations.

Our Wednesdays with Friends is scheduled for Wednesday, February 19. Let's play mahj and cards from 10:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. This will be a relaxing and fun Wednesday morning activity.

We have Naomi Baron and Andrea Delman coming back for another Book Discussion and Art Tour on Thursday, February 27 at 7:00 p.m. on Zoom. The book to be discussed is The Golem of Brooklyn by Adam Mansbach. This evening will be interesting and interactive. Please register to receive the link.

Rabbi Jason Mark will be leading Shabbat services during the weekend of February 28/March 1. Look for information to be sent out with more details.

Our enjoyable Sunday Mahj & Poker is scheduled for Sunday, February 2 from 10:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. The groups have such a fun time playing the games and socializing. Come enjoy the fun!! Register with Nancy or Marc Jacobson.

It is important to register for every program. Contact Nancy at Jaco824@Bex.net or Elsa at Elsa@etzchayimtoledo.org with any questions or to register.

The month is busy during February. Having our Etz Chayim family together is important and special.

Stay warm & safe,

Nancy Jacobson

Candle Lighting Blessing

Boruch atta A-do-noy elohainu melech ho'olam asher kidshano b'mitzvosov, v'tzivonu l'hadlik nair shel:

On Shabbos conclude: Shabbos.

On Festivals conclude: Yom Tov.

On Festivals occurring Friday conclude:
Shabbos ve'yom tov.

Blessed art Thou, O Lord, our G-d, King of the universe, who hast sanctified us by Thy commandments and instructed us to kindle the Sabbath (and/or) Festival Lights.
