A Message from the PRESIDENT

Dear Congregant,

Courage.

Passover is a story of courage. It is the courage of Moses to follow the direction of Hashem with pure faith; the courage of our ancestors to take the action to paint their doorposts with the blood of the lamb; the courage to leave the homes of their ancestors, the only homes they have known; the courage of Nachshon to walk into the water, up to his knees, his waist, his neck . . . courage and faith, courage and faith . . . courage and faith.

As we celebrate Passover this year, as we are told to remember that we, too, were slaves in Egypt, I find myself daily counting my blessings; I find myself daily taking into account the sadness, the frightening events around us, the even more frightening events in Israel; the frightening circumstances that exist throughout this troubled world. It is so scary. And I am so grateful. And I hope, I hope.

I am so grateful for my family, that we are relatively safe here, in these United States. I am grateful for my shul family, my friends. I am grateful for good health, for opportunities to eat good food, freedom to exercise, to grow my mind, to enjoy each day, to know joy, to experience joy, to be in this great country and it is a great country, the only place I want to be, especially in these terribly scary times. And I have hope.

But I don't know how much courage I have. I do know that I have faith, not only faith in Hashem, but faith in the people in my life, faith in integrity and truth and kindness and justice, in freedom and in respect. And I have hope.

As we celebrate Pesach, our Festival of Freedom, I pray that you and I and our people, and all good people throughout the world, will have not only hope, not only faith, but courage, courage, always, to do what is right, what is good, to be bold, to protect our cherished freedom. Please G-d, it should be so.

Wishing you and your loved ones a chag Pesach sameach.

B'ahava,

Marjorie Siegel, President

Warmly,
Marjorie Siegel, President

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Sisterhood is planning a couple fun events this April.

Dream of Pearls will be held Wednesday, April 22nd, at 10:00 a.m. This program will be led by Stephanie Reidy. She will teach how to shuck an oyster to get the pearl out. Participants will then make the pearl into a necklace. There are a variety of styles from which to choose. Included in the program will be a video about oysters, with a brunch following the video. The cost of the event is free for members and $25.00 for non-members of the Sisterhood. We look forward to seeing you.

A "body in motion" drumming activity led by Ilene from the Jewish Federation will be held at the Federation Sekach Building on Wednesday, April 29th. Information on the time will be coming soon.

Also the Tiny Hooves Farm activity is being rescheduled. Watch for information.

The next Sisterhood meeting will be Tuesday, April 7th at 10:00 a.m. in the Etz Chayim Library.

SHORT THOUGHTS FOR PESACH The Rabbi Sacks Legacy

Check online for additional suggestions @ <https://rabbisacks.org>

Pesach is the oldest and most transformative story of hope ever told.

It tells of how an otherwise undistinguished group of slaves found their way to freedom from the greatest and longest-lived empire of their time, indeed of any time.

It tells the revolutionary story of how the supreme Power intervened in history to liberate the supremely powerless.

It is a story of the defeat of probability by the force of possibility.

It defines what it is to be a Jew:
a living symbol of hope.

The Exodus is the inexhaustible source of inspiration to all those who long for freedom. It taught that right was sovereign over might; that freedom and justice must belong to all, not some; that under God, all human beings are equal; and that over all earthly powers is the supreme power, the King of Kings, who hears the cry of the oppressed and who intervenes in history to liberates slaves.

It took many centuries for this vision to become the shared property of liberal democracies of the West; and there is no guarantee that it will remain so.

Freedom is a moral achievement, and without a constant effort of education it atrophies and must be fought for again.

Nowhere more than on Pesach, though, do we see how, loyal to its faith across the centuries, the Jewish people became the guardians of a vision through which, ultimately, "all the nations of the earth will be blessed."

APRIL PROGRAM NEWS

April brings a beautiful sense of connection and renewal to our community. As spring begins, it reminds us of new beginnings and the opportunity to grow together. Gathering with family and friends to celebrate Passover, we are reminded of the power of tradition, storytelling, and shared experience. This month also reflects the life of Etz Chayim—through programs that bring us together to learn, celebrate, and support one another. Whether around the Seder table or at synagogue events, April is a meaningful time to strengthen our bonds and celebrate the spirit of community that makes Etz Chayim so special.

I am excited to invite everyone to our very special speaker on Wednesday, April 15th at 10:00. Cathy Stoldt, a Nutrition & Wellness Specialist will be speaking and answering questions. She will be our “Healthy Eating Speaker.”

We are fortunate to have another Shabbat weekend with Rabbi Jason Mark during the weekend of April 17th & 18th. Plan to come for a delicious pre-Shabbat dinner on Friday evening at 6:00 p.m. We will honor those Etz Chayim family and friends who celebrated March & April birthdays during Shabbat services on Saturday morning with a kiddush luncheon following.

We will be playing Sunday Poker & Mahj on April 19th at 10:00 a.m. Due to Passover and the Board Meeting, we will only be playing one Sunday during April. During the last time in March, we had 16 mahj players and 7 poker players. Come join the fun!!

Wishing all of you and your families a joyful and meaningful Passover. May your Seder tables be filled with warmth, laughter, and the retelling of our shared story, and may the season bring renewal, peace, and blessings to you and your families. Chag Pesach Sameach!

SAVE THE DATE - JOINT SYNAGOGUE BOOK CLUB

The annual joint Synagogue Book Club will be held on Tuesday, July 21, 2026.

The book being reviewed is Heart of a Stranger, by Rabbi Angela Buchdahl

The library has many copies available in print and in audio.

IMPORTANT PASSOVER INFORMATION

ARRANGEMENTS HAVE BEEN MADE WITH CONGREGATION B'NAI ISRAEL & CHABAD FOR SALE OF CHAMETZ. THE APPROPRIATE FORMS FOR EACH ARE INCLUDED IN THIS HASHOMER. PLEASE CONTACT B'NAI ISRAEL OR CHABAD DIRECTLY WITH ANY QUESTIONS.

Ma'os Chitim: Because of the great expense in purchasing the wine, matzah, and kosher for Passover food necessary for a proper observance of the holiday, charity is collected in the weeks prior to Pesach for the specific purpose of helping those who have a difficult time meeting these expenses. This campaign is traditionally referred to as "Ma'os Chitim," literally, "Money for Wheat," referring to the high cost involved in properly tending to the wheat so that it may be turned into matzah. We will be collecting money to be distributed to the JFS Food Pantry. Please make checks payable to "Congregation Etz Chayim," and include "Ma'os Chitim" in the memo. If you are in need of financial assistance in properly preparing for the holiday, please contact Jewish Family Service.

Prohibition of Chametz: Chametz is defined as any product made of the five grains—wheat, barley, oats, spelt, and rye—which has been given an opportunity to leaven. In addition to the prohibition against eating these foods, the Torah forbids even owning such products on Pesach. To ensure that no chametz be in our possession during the entire duration of the holiday, a number of practices are put into place: Bedikas Chametz, Bitul Chametz, and Mechiras Chametz (see below). As a practical matter, only items that bear proper "Kosher for Passover" certification should be eaten on Passover. Due to the complexities of industrial food production, items cannot be deemed kosher for Passover simply by analyzing the printed ingredients.

Prohibition of Kitniyos: The long-standing tradition amongst Ashkenazic Jews has been to refrain from eating "kitniyos" on Pesach. Though literally translated as "legumes," in the context of Pesach, the term includes a litany of other items that could be confused for genuine grains. Examples include corn, peanuts, beans, peas, mustard seed, and soy, as well as any of their derivatives, such as corn syrup, peanut butter, and tofu. As mentioned in regards to chametz, only foods that bear proper "Kosher for Passover" certification should be utilized during the holiday.

Bedikas Chametz: In order to ensure that chametz has been completely eradicated from our homes prior to the onset of Pesach, the Sages enacted the practice of "Bedikas Chametz," or "Searching for Chametz," to be done after nightfall on the eve of Pesach. The Sages called for this to be done specifically at night because of the ability to detect smaller crumbs in the nooks and crannies of the home by candlelight at night than by sunlight during the day. Any areas of the home which cannot be safely checked by candlelight should be examined with a flashlight. Bedikas Chametz should be performed this year on Tuesday night, March 31 after 8:15 p.m. Following Bedikas Chametz, the appropriate Nullification of Chametz should be recited (see Bitul Chametz, below.)

Bitul Chametz: As a safety measure to ensure that no chametz is left in our possession over Pesach, "Bitul Chametz," or, "The Nullification of Chametz" is performed. This is a verbal declaration whereby the owner removes all ownership over any chametz that may still be left in his possession. This declaration is made twice, each with a slightly variant text from the other. The first declaration is made following Bedikas Chametz (see above). In this declaration, we nullify all that we have not found and are unaware of, but retain ownership over chametz which we are aware of. This exclusion is made so as to still retain ownership over the chametz which we will burn the following morning at Bi'ur Chametz (see next page). The second declaration is made following the burning of the chametz on the morning before Passover. In this declaration, we remove ownership from any and all chametz which may still be in our possession. The text for each declaration can be found in any standard Haggadah. Because this is a legal declaration, it is imperative that the meaning of the declaration be understood in its entirety. As such, the declaration should be recited in English, and may then be repeated in the original Aramaic if desired.

Bi'ur Chametz: Literally, "The Destruction of the Chametz." Destroying chametz is an independent mitzvah commanded by the Torah, apart from the overarching need to rid one's home of chametz. This mitzvah can only be performed with chametz that we still own. It is for this reason that the Nullification of Chametz recited this year on Tuesday evening, March 31, following our search for the chametz (see Bedikas Chametz on previous page) was limited only to that chametz which went unfound and of which we were unaware. We make a point of retaining ownership over the chametz which we are aware of so that we will be able to actively destroy it the next morning in fulfillment of this Biblical mitzvah. We make a point of burning the chametz, as opposed to destroying it through some other means, in order to fulfill the mitzvah according to R' Yehudah, whose opinion as stated in the Mishnah is that burning the chametz is the only manner in which this mitzvah may be fulfilled. The remaining chametz should be eaten before 11:45 a.m. and sold and burned before 12:00 p.m. on Wednesday, April 1, and no chametz should be eaten afterward until the closing of Pesach.

Mechiras Chametz: Chametz that the owner does not wish to destroy before Pesach may be sold to a gentile. To effect this sale, the rabbi is given "power of attorney" over a person's chametz and then sells it to a gentile on the owner's behalf on the morning before Pesach.

PLEASE NOTE: The sale of the chametz is a binding legal transaction. The utilization of this chametz while it still belongs to the gentile is an act of theft. Please take care to leave the chametz aside until 8:50 p.m. on Thursday night, April 9, at which point the rabbi will have re-purchased the chametz for all its original owners.

Start of the Seder

In an ideal situation, the seder is not started until nightfall, which coincides with 8:15 p.m. on the night of the first Seder, Wednesday, April 1, and 8:45 p.m. on the night of the second Seder, Thursday, April 2. Great care should be taken to recite the Kiddush and begin the Seder only after this time. With the understanding that such a late start time makes it difficult to enjoy a protracted Seder, below are some suggestions to streamline the Seder and keep it from becoming unnecessarily drawn out.

- Station Matzah, Marror, and other Seder Plate items throughout the table. Participants can take for themselves rather than the Seder Leader passing the portions all around the table.
- Remember that analyzing and conversing about the Haggadah can continue to take place even after it has been read and everyone is enjoying dinner. Consider streamlining things by capping the number of thoughts that each participant may share while the Haggadah is read and waiting until dinner to continue the conversation.
- If younger children are the motivation to start the Seder early, consider a pre-Seder for them. Sit down with them before the Seder officially begins, have them eat dinner, hear the thoughts and songs they've learned at religious school and want to share with their family. They can fall asleep even before the Seder begins, having already been given important holiday memories.
